Summary

Full-Stack Developer with 3+ years of professional experience building SaaS, AI, and cloud applications using React.js, Next.js, and Spring Boot. With over 7 years immersed in tech from early low-level programming in C and C++ to working across ecosystems like Dart, Vue, and Angular. I've developed a strong edge in adapting across stacks. I specialize in crafting user-focused frontends (helped lift conversion by 5.6%) and building reliable backend APIs. I'm also experienced in designing scalable database architectures and delivering polished reusable UIs components in react.
